This report provides an assessment of spatial inequalities and segregation in cities and metropolitan areas from multiple perspectives. The chapters in the report focus on a subset of OECD countries and non-member economies, and provide new insights on cross-cutting issues for city neighbourhoods, such as the patterns of segregation across income groups, migrant concentration and diversity ...

Divided Cities - Understanding Intra-urban Inequalities

1. Introduction. There is a renewed battle of ideas about the best way to tackle spatial inequalities within nations and regions (Barca, 2009, McCann, 2016, OECD, 2009, World Bank, 2009). The contest between different approaches has been spurred by heightened competition for investment in a context of economic volatility and geopolitical uncertainty.

Poverty reduction. China has maintained a high growth rate for more than 30 years since the beginning of economic reform in 1978, and this sustained growth has generated a huge increase in average living standards. 25 years ago, China had many characteristics in common with the rest of developing Asia: large population, low per capita income, and resource scarcity on a per capita basis.
